

California Reserve Component

BRAC 2005 Recommendation:

Transform Reserve Component facilities in the State of California into multi-functional installations that will enhance unit readiness, increase training opportunities, and generate operational efficiencies. These transformed facilities will provide the capability to conduct Soldier Readiness Processing and Home Station Mobilization, reduce the number of substandard/undersized Reserve Component facilities, enhance Anti-Terror/Force-Protection, promote effective recruiting and retention, and enhance the Homeland Security and Homeland Defense capabilities of the Army Reserve and the Army National Guard.

Gains:

- Build 1 Armed Forces Reserve Center (AFRC) with an Organizational Maintenance Shop – AFRC Moffett Field. The new AFRC shall have the capability to accommodate California National Guard units listed below.
- Build 1 Armed Forces Reserve Center – AFRC Bell. The new AFRC shall have the capability to accommodate California National Guard units, US Naval Reserve and US Marine Corps Reserve units listed below.
- Build a Southwest Regional Readiness Command Headquarters at Moffett Field
- Relocate the 91st Div (TSD) to Ft Hunter Liggett
